Do this by making a gross sales web page for the brand new guide, but do not include a price on that page. Instead, add numerous links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a price to your ebook.

One other technique is to test out prices by creating a number of duplicate sales pages with different prices on each page. Make sure that your gross sales copy is precisely the same on every page, and includes your selling-deal with sentence. Then work out for every page the conversion ratio between visitors to your website and gross sales of your book. It will tell you what your optimum price is.

Ultimately, should you've written a e book that solves a downside or presents a new method, your guide will bring in each traffic and profits. So you should definitely write that promoting-deal with sentence that sums up what downside your e-book solves and what the benefits of your 250 book will be to the shoppers who buy it.
